PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy outlines the procedures by which SeylanBit (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") collects, uses, and manages personal information through its website, www.seylanbit.com, or any other websites operated by the Company. SeylanBit is committed to protecting the personal data it collects and processes in the course of providing its services. Prior to registering for the Trader's Room, clients are strongly encouraged to carefully review this Policy. For any questions regarding the Privacy Policy, clients may contact the Company using the contact details provided on the official website.

1. Personal Data of the Client

1.1. In order to open an account with SeylanBit, the Client is required to complete and submit a registration form. During this process, the Client consents to provide personal information and submit copies of identity verification documents.

1.2. The personal data provided by the Client may include, but is not limited to:

1.2.1. Identification details submitted in forms or applications, such as full name, residential address, date of birth, passport information, occupation, and job title.

1.2.2. Financial background, including information about the Client's investment experience.

1.2.3. Verification documents, such as scanned copies of passports, utility bills, or bank references.

1.2.4. Payment-related documents, including transfer instructions, bank statements, credit/debit card images, and payment confirmations.

1.2.5. Credit/debit card details provided for deposit or withdrawal transactions.

1.3. The Company collects this personal data for the purposes of identity verification, regulatory compliance, and effective communication regarding its services.

1.4. Individuals under the age of 18 are not permitted to register or use the services of the Company. SeylanBit is committed to protecting the privacy of minors and does not knowingly collect data from individuals under 18 years of age.

2. Information Collected from the Client's Use of Services

2.1. Tracking technologies used on the Company's website(s) may collect additional data to help optimize the services provided to Clients. This information may include device details, browser and log data, geolocation information, and cookies. By collecting this data, SeylanBit is able to deliver the most appropriate version of its website(s), monitor user activity for diagnostic and support purposes, enhance overall site performance, and improve the effectiveness of future marketing campaigns.

3. Confidentiality of the Client's Personal Data

3.1. SeylanBit will not disclose any confidential information about its Clients to third parties, except in the following circumstances:

3.1.1. When disclosure is required by a regulatory authority with appropriate jurisdiction. In such cases, the Company will inform the receiving party that the information is confidential.

3.1.2. When the disclosure is necessary for the purpose of processing the Client's trading or non-trading instructions. In such instances, information may be shared with affiliated companies, auditors, agents (including payment agents), banks, or other authorized entities or individuals acting on behalf of the Company.

3.2. If personal data is to be collected or processed on behalf of a third party not affiliated with SeylanBit, the Company will inform the Client accordingly. This allows the Client to make an informed decision regarding whether or not to proceed with providing such information.

4. Cookies

4.1. A cookie is a small text file placed on a user's device for record-keeping and user experience optimization. SeylanBit uses cookies on its website(s) but does not associate cookie data with personally identifiable information submitted by Clients. The Company utilizes both session cookies and persistent cookies. A session cookie is active only while the browser remains open, whereas a persistent cookie remains stored on the Client's device for a longer duration.

Clients can remove persistent cookies by following the relevant instructions provided in their browser's help section. Persistent cookies are used by the Company for statistical analysis and to improve service quality. These cookies help track user behavior, identify user preferences, and enhance website performance during repeat visits.

4.2. Some of SeylanBit's third-party partners may also place cookies on the Company's website(s). SeylanBit does not have access to or control over such third-party cookies.

5. Safety and Protection of Client's Personal Information

5.1. Personal information provided by the client during site(s) or service registration is classified as Registered Information. Registered Information is safeguarded through various measures. Clients can access Registered Information through a password selected during registration. This password is encrypted and known solely to the client, who should not share it with anyone. Registered Information is securely stored on servers accessible solely to authorized personnel via a password. To enhance personal information security, the Company may employ SSL certificates.

5.2. Personal information provided to the Company that does not qualify as Registered Information is similarly stored on secure servers and accessible only to authorized personnel via a password. Clients have no access to this information, and therefore, no ability to modify it.

6. Credit/Debit Card Data Safety

6.1. The client's confidential data is processed in a processing center. The client's credit/debit card details are not stored in the payment system after the transaction is completed using the card.

7. Changes to Personal Information

7.1. In the event of any changes to personal information, the client should promptly inform the Company using the contact information provided on the website.

8. Content of External Sites

8.1. The Company's website may include links to external websites over which the Company has no control. Therefore, the Company is not responsible for their content. The provider of the website or information is responsible for the content of external sites.

9. Legal Disclaimer

9.1. The Company reserves the right to disclose personally identifiable information as required by rules and regulations, and when deemed necessary to protect our rights and/or comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process served.

9.2. The Company shall not be held liable for any misuse or loss of personal information resulting from the use of cookies on the Company's website(s) that are beyond the Company's access or control.

9.3. The Company shall not be held liable for unlawful or unauthorized use of personal information due to password misuse, negligence, or malicious actions.

10. Changes to the Privacy Policy

10.1. Should the Company decide to modify the Privacy Policy, such changes will be reflected in this privacy statement, on the website, and other suitable locations as determined by the Company. This way, the client is kept informed about what information the Company collects, how it is used, and under what circumstances it may be disclosed. The Company reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy at any time; therefore, we recommend revisiting it periodically. In the event of significant policy changes, the Company will notify clients via email or on the website. By continuing to use the website services or visiting it, clients automatically agree to any changes made to the Policy.
